

MWI Consultants in Singapore, Asset Management, Portfolio Management: Ethics

Ethical Business Standards

MWI Consultants strives to uphold the highest levels of ethical practice within our business dealings. Our goal is to protect and preserve the interests of our clients by upholding strict ethical standards.

Observing Good Conduct at All Times

We commit to abide by all laws, regulations and ethical standards required or expected of professionals serving throughout the financial industry. This involves completely submitting to all statutory and regulatory stipulations that pertain to the providing financial consultancy to our customers

Work in Your Best Interests Only

Our goal is to serve your needs only with advices that are appropriate to your circumstances as an individual and not merely those that bring financial advantage to our company. We work to bring success to our customers' financial goals, ultimately. We will not enter into any strategic partnerships with third party entities in order to obtain financial gain for ourselves. The only strategic relationships we establish are with you. That is, each one of our advices and decisions on your behalf will be done solely for the propagation of your needs and your portfolio.

Dealing with All Clients Fairly

We consistently treat all our clients equally and provide them with the same high quality service, regardless of wealth, budget and level of investment. We consider our responsibility to our clients quite seriously and stand on the principle that our primary goal is to conduct our business with integrity and respect. We will continually serve you with utmost honesty and fairness.

Commit Ourselves to Providing a Long Term Service

We center our service on delivering to client's long term service and will only enter into new transactions based on their best interests. Unless necessary, we do not initiate any new business or provide any additional recommendations or consultancy.

Maintain Competency in Investment Management

Our teams are diligently serving the interests of our clients and improving investment management service by acquiring up to date education and training.

Act with Integrity

We commit ourselves to offering only services that are consistent with our aim to deliver excellent and financially viable recommendations and support. For instance, we will not deal with a customer who merely desires to have an investment or pension and leaves its progress to the wind without any evaluation, hoping for good fortune to come into view.
