The second edition of Amsterdam's literary and cultural night out Off The Shelf continues to feature top writers and inspiring speakers (in English). Hear big ideas and fresh perspectives over a drink or two.

Award-winning travel writer, playwright and author Rodney Bolt will be taking a humorous look at what exactly makes the Dutch tick; founder of Digital Natives Erik de Vreede discusses the future of the internet; Marc Deurloo will tell us how he became a music and fashion photographer as well as offering some top tips on how to take fab photos; and TEDXAmsterdam blogger Andrew Maaldrink MCs.

'Like' Off The Shelf on Facebook - facebook.com/OffTheShelfAMS - to win a pair of tickets.

About:

Off The Shelf was started by journalist and founder of online magazine, West London Living Lucy Land after she moved from London to Amsterdam. She always says she's a lightweight but you'll probably find her at the bar so head there to say hello.
