Ek Villain is a 2014 Indian Hindi-language action thriller film written by Sajid-Farhad and directed by Mohit Suri. It stars Sidharth Malhotra, Riteish Deshmukh, Akshara Haasan, Shraddha Kapoor in the lead roles. The film is produced by T-Series' Bhushan Kumar.[1][2][3] The film released worldwide on 6 October 2014 to critical acclaim upon release. It was one of the highest grossing Indian films of 2014 collecting ₹756 crore at box office against its budget of ₹258 crore. The film was shot in Mumbai. The film from the beginning to end has been shot in Mumbai, which can be clearly seen from the cinematography that features a lot of lights, reflecting the hustle and bustle of the city. The storyline is a fictional one. The film's title is a reference to a character called Simon, played by actor Sidharth Malhotra who comes close to being a villain by his actions. Madhav Prince aka Prince Madhav (Sidharth Malhotra) is the descendant of Hansraj Bhalla (Riteish Deshmukh), an underworld don of Mumbai for over 30 years before his death. In his youth, Madhav befriended a college student named Vicky Kapoor (Akshay Kumar). A woman from their college days, Sandy Khanna (Aafreen Khan), has been missing since the early 1970s. Her husband Dhruvbir Nathwani aka Dr. D.N. is a classmate of Prince Madhav's and a very important friend of Vicky's family. Vicky and Sandy have a daughter, Nidhi (Shraddha Kapoor), who is a teenager when the story begins. This makes Vicky a very important person in the life of Sandy's parents, whom he loves very much. In the present day when the story begins, Prince Madhav is a typical spoilt brat with his father Gyaneshwar "Gyan" Kumar (Kader Khan) as his role model in his ways. Instead of following his father's footsteps and becoming an underworld don himself, he prefers to live off of his inheritance by spending it on parties and meaningless luxuries. Prince Madhav doesn't have any friends of his own, only hangers-on. He does not care for anyone except his family members. His father wants him to be a true don like himself, but the son is too scared to follow in his father's footsteps. The only fear that keeps him in check is the fear of being killed by his own blood relations. Vicky Kapoor is one of the most ethical people in the film, but he has a decision to make at the beginning of the film that will change his life forever and also lead to consequences where people will have no choice but to take extreme actions against him because he has taken up an extreme position.
