

Netherlands ## It is never a good idea to move into a new place, but when you're on the verge of leaving an old one, it's even worse. Just ask these two families who fell victim to their neighbours from hell. From loud music blasting on weekends, to an overgrown garden that turns their front yard into a jungle, the inhabitants of this rental home and the family next door simply couldn't get along. A full-blown war of words and more followed - and not just between these two households, but with the entire neighbourhood! Watch as we take you through both gardens of horror and show you what really happens when people don't get along - for better or for worse. Netherlands ## It's the end of the world and you're all alone. Of course, it's not actually the end of the world (unless you're completely insane), however there are still a lot of creatures living in the woods, and they might be looking for your flesh. This is what happens when four tourists decide to collect firewood in a small nature reserve. Alone in the spooky forest, surrounded by the silence of nature, one thing becomes abundantly clear: they're not alone in the woods.
