

A frolicking good time

ABOVE: Competitors in the Red Ants Pants Music Festival wood cutting competition saw through logs on Sunday at Jackson Ranches outside White Sulphur Springs. BELOW: Jenny Christiansen and Brian Branton of Bozeman dance during the festival. TRIBUNE PHOTOS/JAKE SORICH

Red Ants Pants filled with good music, good fun

By JAKE SORICH
Tribune Staff Writer

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS — Crowds at the Red Ants Pants Music Festival this weekend witnessed three days jam-packed with folk music, plentiful sunshine and two prominent girls with guitars, Emmylou Harris and Mary Chapin Carpenter.

Carpenter played the Wynonna Judd hit song "Girls With Guitars" on Sunday as a nod to Lyle Lovett, who sings the chorus on the recorded version and played at last year's festival.

She also closed out the festival with a set filled

See RED ANTS PANTS, 3A