

CULTURE FIX

THINGS ARE HEATING UP THIS SUMMER, WITH FESTIVAL SEASON IN FULL SWING AND A CLUTCH OF STAR-STUDED SCREEN RELEASES TO LOOK FORWARD TO, SAYS BRYONY GOOCH

From left: The Royal Academy of Arts' annual summer exhibition; Tom Hanks in Asteroid City, Michael Sheen and Sharon Horgan in Best Interests; Grace Jones

ART

Royal Academy of Arts Summer Exhibition

The Royal Academy of Arts' annual summer exhibition offers a plethora of creativity to suit all tastes. This year, the theme is 'Only Connect', inspired by the famous EM Forster quote: 'Only connect the prose and the passion, and both will be exalted, and human love will be seen at its highest.' Open from 13th June, tickets from £24.50

FILM

Asteroid City

Wes Anderson's latest film is set in 1955, and people across the country gather in the fictional Asteroid City for a stargazer convention. As with all Wes Anderson films, you can expect gorgeous aesthetics, intricate world building and a star-studded cast, as the likes of Scarlett Johansson, Tom Hanks and Margot Robbie assemble. In cinemas from 23rd June

TV

Best Interests

Sharon Horgan and Michael Sheen star as married couple Nicci and Andrew in this thought-provoking drama written by Jack Thorne. Nicci and Andrew's daughter Marnie has a life-threatening condition and doctors believe it's in her best interests to be allowed to die, but her loving family disagrees. Coming soon to BBC One. Read our interview with Sharon Horgan on page 32

MUSIC

Love Supreme Jazz Festival

Europe's biggest greenfield jazz festival celebrates its 10th anniversary with an all-female headline bill including Little Simz and Grace Jones. Meanwhile, the festival's wellness area offers everything from spa treatments to yoga classes in a giant tipi. From 30th June to 2nd July, tickets from £63

PHOTOGRAPHY: SEVERINE HOWELL-MERI, ANDREA KLARIN, ELLIE SMITH, DAVID PARRY/ROYAL ACADEMY OF ARTS, POP, 87 PRODUCTIONS/FOCUS FEATURES, BBC/CHAPTER ONE, SEVERINE HOWELL-MERI