Time to go!

The tiger has enjoyed his nice tea, but now it's time to go! Can you copy the picture of the tiger leaving into the grid below?

Perfect pairs

Let's help Sophie's mummy tidy up the kitchen!

Can you find the matching pairs for all these items?

Sleeping tigers

Here's a fun game you can play with friends! It's called Sleeping Tigers and it's all about how still you can stay...

You will need:

- One person to be the judge
- Space to lie in

How to Play:

- For this game, all the players have to lie very still on the floor.
- The judge walks about, watching everyone very carefully. Anyone who giggles, twitches or wriggles is out!
- The last person lying still is the winner.

Sophie's Tip
The judge can't tickle anyone while walking around, but they can make them laugh any other way!

Roaring tigers

Time to be loud and run around with this fun game!

You will need:

- A blindfold - an old scarf or tie will work
- Space to run

How to Play:

- One person is "it" and wears a blindfold so they cannot see anything. Ask a grown-up for help putting this on!
- The person who is "it" calls out, "Where are the tigers?", and the other players must answer with a loud ROAR. They can ask, "Where are the tigers?" as many times as they like, and the other players must always roar back.
- The person who is "it" must listen to the roars and try to catch another player, who will then become "it".

Sophie's Tip
Make sure you clear the floor - remember the person who is "it" can't see!
