

Nick White

Dr. Tubbs

Sports reporting

1 February 2019

Gamer 1

University of West Florida gets off to a strong start 12-2 with 4:57 to go into the first quarter. Fanny Hulmi leads the way with 5 points. University of West Florida has had a strong defensive performance from the start of the game .

They go on a 16-0 run with 3:12 to go with a 3 by senior Belle Bristrow. As UWF makes substitutions they continue add to the score of 23-2. West Alabama cannot keep up with the fast past that UWF is moving at.

West Alabama had a chance to get two more points on the board before halftime but they couldn't execute on the free throws . West Florida finishes the first quarter with a lead 25-2.

Bistrow comes into the second with a 3 pointer. The next possession west Alabama finally gets two more points on the board. With 7:15 to go in the second quarter, senior Toni Brewer leaves for bench with 2 PF, she has had a strong performance from the field going 3-3 to add on 8 points, 3 rebounds, and 4 assist.

After only scoring 2 points in the first quarter West Alabama came out strong with 9 points in the second quarter to make it 35-11 but that didn't stop UWF from moving fast.

Bistrow has had a strong night as well for the UWF Argos . She had 9 points before she went to the bench in the second quarter with 1:50 to go. UWF goes into the half up 39-14.

With Brewer only playing 8:12 in the first half she lead the Argos with a strong performance, let's see if she can keep that up in the second half.

UWF outscored west Alabama on second chance points and points off turnovers. West Alabama did have less turnovers at half, but UWF owned the game from start.

Hulmi opened the third quarter with a big three pointer, as Bistrow followed consecutive with another big three. That gives UWF a 45-14 lead with a 6-0 run to start the third with the biggest lead of the day.

Bistrow scores on a layup to get her 14th point as the leading scorer for the Argos. The Argos continued to keep up the fast past and started to knock down the three ball. The bench came into the game and did not give up the lead.

Argos go up 61-24 headed into the fourth quarter with a buzzer beater floater from freshman guard D'asia Collins.

Bistrow opens the fourth with a three to give the Argos a 40 point lead. That was her 12th three of the game, she's been pretty solid from the three all game. Late into the fourth the Argos continued to run up the score, they did not look back once.

Senior Brewer leaves the game with 4 mins to go, she is 5-9 from the field with 16 points as the Argos second leading scorer behind senior teammate Bistrow with 17 points. She was 5-13 from three tonight with the team being 10-26 from three combined. She went 6-14 from the field.