Fashion looks to the past, as the 80s vibe ignites this year. Here's a wildly fresh take on old favorites as you begin to socialize more in the times ahead. Ruffles are more feminine, necklines are more innovative, and silhouettes are more glamorous than what we saw in the Reagan years. So, now it all feels new to us, as we channel our inner Cindy Crawford, and we wanna dance with somebody in these fresh frocks, dont you?
