

Responsibly made

By championing sustainability, these Nepalese brands are leading the charge towards an eco-friendly lifestyle

HANDMADE

Using traditional Newari techniques, a copper artisan takes two days to complete one large brass vase by hand.

HIMALAYAN NETTLE

This hand-crocheted bag is made from nettle yarn sustainably sourced from around the country.

1. Metalwood brass vase, S$36, metalwoodnepal.com 2. Kolpa nettle market bag, S$26, kolpaworld.com 3. Kolpa Raute Kosi wooden bowl, S$36, kolpaworld.com 4. Paila Himalayan nettle Bhaku flats, S$42, pailashoes.com.np 5. Bora Studio eco-printed bamboo scarf, S$60, fb.com/borastudionepal 6. Kar.ma Coffee handmade recycled brass and copper fork and spoon set, S$24, madeinnepal.com 7. Koseli mini aloe vera shampoo bar, mini watercress and equisetum conditioning bar and lemon verbena hand bar, S$6 (each), herbnepal.com 8. Kaligarh Marwari gold-plated earrings and Nagbeshar lapis brass ring, S$96 (each), kaligarh.com 9. Kar.ma Coffee roti board, S$10, madeinnepal.com

PHOTO BY SABRINA DANGOL; STYLING BY DORA ALJOOFRY;
LIGHT ASSISTANCE BY ROBIC UPADHAYAY