

Hen & Stag

A PLACE BY THE SEA

Have a wave of a time at these luxury, seaside resorts right on your doorstep

ENTERTAIN

There's a brilliant open plan lounge with comfy leather Chesterfield sofas to sink into - ideal for a movie night. This lounge also leads straight into a large dining area.

The penthouse floor is another fabulous entertaining space, complete with a hair and makeup bar.

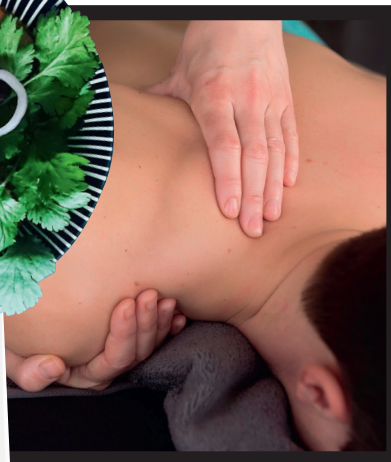

TOWNHOUSE

A designer style home within Brighton's bohemian district

LET THE PAMPER BEGIN!

Get your party started by having a private chef cook your party a lavish meal. SuperDoux will create a bespoke menu especially for your bride tribe. Afterwards, get the lovely team in from TreatYourselfBrighton for relaxing massages ahead of your night out. Sit back, relax and party!

Just an hour's drive away from central London, Brighton makes for an easy going and easy loving waterfront hub that's worth exploring on a Hen & Stag weekend away. This stunning townhouse, which sleeps up to 15 of your friends and family, is located right next to the Bohemian North Laines. It's a happening, lively district, with ample vegetarian cafes, vintage clothes and jewellery stalls so you're able to freely wander around all the little lanes and shops. It's also within walking distance of Brighton's iconic pier and beach, which has millions of visitors every year. If you just fancy staying in with your crew, the gorgeous four-storey townhouse has a lovely, homely feel and all the amenities you need so you can walk in, explore your new home, and relax. Once you discover the penthouse floor, you won't want to leave - you can use the space for private yoga classes or as a Hollywood Style loft to get ready before your Big Night out! ■
