

Prepare to be greeted by a magnificent lobby as you enter the Ajwa Hotel. The gleaming, marble pillars stretch from the floor to the ceiling, and are prominent features throughout. Despite being rich in grand designs and original artwork, it has the intimacy of a boutique hotel, and attention to detail in every single space.

AJWA HOTEL

ISTANBUL, TURKEY

An artisanal gem discovered in magical Istanbul

Wonderfully capturing the city's majesty, Ajwa Hotel Sultanahmet is the place to stay if you want to capture old world, Turkish splendor. Conveniently located, you're well-placed within walking distance of the famous Grand Bazaar and discovering the historical and cultural delights of Old Istanbul.

Dressed in a marble-clad exterior, the hotel itself sets the scene for a sophisticated and lavish stay. Interiors are adorned with mother-of-pearl furniture, silk Tabriz carpets and hand-painted ceilings, taking you on a journey into the past. We'd recommend a romantic stay in the Corner Suite with a sea view, for an unforgettable Honeymoon.

TURKISH DELIGHTS
A trip to Turkey wouldn't be the same without a taste of the finest selection of sweets, which you can find plenty of, at Sukkari Patisserie. From baklava, to fresh fruits and specialty coffee, you'll be served delicate delights in a warm, authentic and intimate setting.

ZEFERAN EATERY

You'll discover a trove of rich, culinary treats from Azerbaijan as well as a few Turkish specialties in the hotel's main restaurant. Think succulent kebabs, rice dishes, and moreish, vegetable roasts! (There are extensive Halal dining options, within this alcohol-free hotel too). Try and find a spot by the window, where you'll find unbeatable, panoramic views over the city, Marmara sea and its stunning shoreline. ■
